

ROCC for Women acknowledges Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander people as the Traditional Custodians of the land and water we live and work on. We pay our respects to Elders past and present.

ROCC's Value Proposition

ROCC offers long-term case management for women 18 years and over who are homeless or at risk of homelessness or have had contact with the criminal justice system and/or where alcohol or other drugs, family / domestic violence and trauma impact negatively on their lives.

We offer personalised, tailored, flexible supports and a wraparound, holistic approach for women who have experienced or are experiencing trauma.

Vision of ROCC

ROCC for Women empowers women to realise their dignity and wellbeing through long term case management to have hope to focus on their goals.

Mission

To deliver trauma-informed, strength-based supports to foster resilience in, and advocate for, women.

HOW ROCC WORKS

Intake

Self-refer or be referred by another service. Our team will assess if we can assist or suggest a more appropriate service.

Documentation

We are primarily funded by the Department of Communities and Justice as a Specialist Homelessness Service together with other grants and donations. There will be documentation-forms to complete and records kept of our interactions. Your documentation is available to you.

Case Management

If you continue with ROCC we will undertake an initial assessment of your stated needs and goals, and then work with you to develop pathways. It is your choice to take the journey offered.

Teamwork

Working collaboratively in a close team environment, we seek to have a diverse, supportive and culturally safe workplace where every voice is valued within a culture of honesty, integrity and respect for individuality so we can deliver tailored, flexible supports for our clients.

Privacy

Privacy – We respect your privacy and manage your information in accordance with our Privacy Policy updated on our website. Hard copies available on request.
